

Preparations are in full swing for reunion of Gordon ex-pupils

THE countdown is underway to a reunion of former pupils of The Gordon Schools who are close to celebrating their sixtieth birthdays.

A class of '68 reunion is being planned by Ingrid Binning, nee Rogers, Joan Park, nee Bagrie and Donald Yule.

News of the gathering on Saturday May 7 has been spread by social media but now the organisers want to ensure that they don't miss out any of their former classmates who have not embraced Facebook.

A class list for the year has been secured from the archives and the organisers are trying to contact as many of the group as possible.

The plans for the reunion, at 7pm in Huntly Golf Club, is for a buffet meal followed by dancing to Ziggy and Toni but with plenty of time to catch up with former classmates. The cost is £15. Partners are very welcome to go along and tickets are available now from Ingrid at the Linden Tree.

Anyone who went in to first year in 1968 and would like to find out more should call Ingrid on 01466 568002.

Details of the gathering can be found on the Facebook group page May Reunion (7th)55/56.
