

These senior pupils from The Gordon Schools in 1993 presented a varied programme for the annual old folks party when residents of care homes and sheltered housing complexes were entertained.